Yellow Flower

Materials:

Papicolor card: cream white (smart P12), caramel (basic P26), Christmas red (basic P43) and Christmas green (thin) (basic P43)

Decoupage sheet: Nel van Veen 2273

Glazed pearls: Joy!Craft 0012

Embroidery thread: Madeira gold 7 en Sulky 7055

Stencil: Doen 2

Tassel, large gold-coloured bead, organza ribbon, 4 small gold-coloured beads

Use a 14.8 x 14.8 cm red, single-fold card (A4-sheet cut in half). Cut a 14.2 x 14.2 caramel square and a 13.5 x 13.5 cm cream white one. Place the stencil in the centre of the cream white card. Emboss and pierce the pattern. Trace the cutting lines onto the reverse side using a propelling pencil. Remove the stencil and rotate it. It is easy to rotate the stencil on the heart of the flowers. Continue embossing and piercing until the entire pattern is finished. Cut out the pencil lines neatly, starting in the centre and working towards the edge. Lay the embossed border on thin Christmas red paper and secure it with low-tack tape. Using scissors to trim it and leave a narrow border. Place a mark in pencil on the reverse side of the cream white and Christmas red, to make it easy replacing the layers in the original position later on. Place the small corner template in each corner of the cream white square (outer border). Embroider the patterns. Pierce a hole through the Christmas red, single-fold card, near the top of the fold and thread the ribbon through it. Stick all layers together. Attach the picture and make it 3D. Finish off with glazed pearls and ribbon (tassel).

Basket with flowers

Materials:

Papicolor card: cerise (basic P33), light green (basic P47), carnation white (basic P03), blossom (basic P34) and green vellum

Decoupage sheet: Diny van de Lustgraaf 1-2-3D punch 3D 501

Glazed pearls: Joy!Craft E 03

Embroidery thread: Madeira rayon 1106, 1116 and 1119

Stencil: Doen 2

Use a 15.5 x 26 cm cerise-coloured strip. Starting from the left make a mountain fold at 6.5 cm and a valley fold at 4 cm. Cut a 14.5 x 14.5 cm blossom square and a 5.5 x 14.5 cm rectangle for the side. Cut a 14 x 14 cm carnation white square and a 5 x 14 cm rectangle for the side. Trace the attached embroidery pattern. Copy the embroidery corner onto all corners of the carnation white (14 x 14 cm) card. Place the stencil onto light green card. Emboss and pierce the pattern. Using a propelling pencil trace the cutting lines onto the reverse side of the card. Remove the template and rotate the stencil. It is easy to rotate the stencil on the heart of the flowers. Continue embossing and piercing until the entire pattern is finished. Starting in the centre cut out all traced parts along the pencil line. Embroider all patterns. Use green vellum to emboss the flowers. Attach the picture and make it 3D. Finish the vellum flowers with glazed pearls.

Lilac organza ribbon 2,3 cm, lilac satin ribbon 3 mm, flower ribbon white and lilac

Small white beads, 1 large silver-coloured bead and an icicle-shaped bead, 2 small silver-coloured beads

Stencil: Doen 2

Use a 14.8 x 14.8 cm dark purple, single-fold card (A4-sheet cut in half). Cut a 14.2 x 14.2 cm aubergine square and a 13.5 x 13.5 cm white one. Take the white square and place the stencil in the centre. Emboss the pattern. Trace the cutting lines onto the reverse side using a propelling pencil. Remove the stencil and rotate it. It's easy to rotate the stencil on the heart of the flowers. Continue embossing until the entire pattern is finished. Cut out the pencil lines neatly, starting in the centre and working towards the edge. Lay the embossed border on (thin) mauve-coloured paper. Secure it with low-tack tape. Using a pair of scissors cut a frame. Mark the reverse side of the white and mauve-coloured paper, to make it easy when replacing the frame in the original position later on. Finish the border with white flower ribbon and beads. Lay the small corner stencil on each corner of the white card (square outer border). Embroider the patterns. Make a hole in the top of the fold of the dark purple, single-fold card and thread the ribbon through it. Tie it into a nice bow. Thread a thin satin ribbon through the icicle-shaped bead. Gather the two ends and thread them through the large bead. Secure the ribbon with 2 lilac flowers and 2 small beads. Thread one ribbon through the knot of the bow. Make a knot and hide it in the large bow. Attach the picture and make it 3D.
